Hi Mr. Santiago and Mrs. Corral,

I hope this message finds you both well and that you are enjoying a bit of a break.

Thank you again, Mr. Santiago, for joining the Romeo & Juliet call and I apologize again for not looping you in, Mrs. Corral.

In a few weeks, we're going to begin preparing for the state exams and then, after that, we're entering our unit on Poet X. Before we try to run the same parent group for Poet X as we did for Romeo & Juliet, I know there was (and still may be) a desire to not have Cielo read that book. I'd love to talk with the both of you more, if you are amenable. I'd also love to follow up on how things are going, in general, with Cielo since we last chatted.

Let me know if there are some days/times that work best for the two of you.

Best,

Mr. Negron

Hello Mr. Negrón,

Thank you for reaching out. Yes, I'd like to talk about the book. I haven't read it and would like to get up to speed--what is the timing on when you plan to start the unit on the book? Is the plan moving forward to definitely engage with the book even though the parent group has not weighed in? Your message is not clear on that. I won't speak for Bill but I know he is traveling at the moment so not sure what his availability is. I'm pretty open all day tomorrow.

Thank you,
Maria

Hello Mr. Negrón,

Is it possible for Bill and I to have copies of the Poet X book? I know you all keep extra copies. If so, can you send them with Cielo?

Thank you,
Maria

I asked Mr. G. / Ms. Peterson to send books home with Cielo. Did you receive them?

Thanks,

Mr. Negrón
